SEPTEMBER/OCTOBER 2018

20, THURSDAY
Depart the U.S.

The day of departure has arrived! We'll meet at Detroit Metropolitan Airport to check in for the flights to Europe. Our adventure is beginning! (D-in flight)

21, FRIDAY
Arrive Geneva

After changing planes in Europe, we'll touch down in Geneva, clear customs, and board the waiting motorcoach. We'll make a stop for lunch and begin our exploration of Geneva, often referred to as the "Rome of Protestants." Except for a brief period of his exile in Strasbourg, Calvin lived and worked in Geneva until his death in 1564. This afternoon includes a visit to the World Council of Churches, where the Rev. Dwain Epps will be our host. We'll then check in at the hotel for a two-night stay and enjoy a welcome dinner. (B-in flight, D)

22, SATURDAY
Geneva

This morning we'll take a guided tour that includes Cathédrale St.-Pierre, where Calvin preached on Sundays and weekdays, and the Reformation Monument. This memorial, erected in 1917, contains statues of the four great reformers associated with Geneva—Calvin, Farel, Beza, and Knox. We'll also visit the International Museum of the Reformation (using audio-guides), which traces the history of the Reformation movement initiated by John Calvin. The rest of the afternoon will be free to explore Geneva on our own and have an independent dinner. (B)

23, SUNDAY

Zurich

We'll head northeast to Zurich today, the city of Ulrich Zwingli and Heinrich Bullinger. It was here in the Old City that Felix Manz (co-founder of the original Swiss Brethren Anabaptist congregation in Zurich) was drowned in the Limmat River. We'll have time for lunch upon arrival, and then take a guided tour that includes a visit to the Grossmünster, from whose pulpit Ulrich Zwingli established the Reformation in the German-speaking part of Switzerland. We may also visit the Fraumünster, which is famous for its stained-glass windows by Marc Chagall. Those who wish can attend an English-language service at the International Protestant Church at 6:00 p.m., and we'll have dinner at the hotel. (B, D)

24, MONDAY

Konstanz, Strasbourg

Today we'll travel into Germany for a brief visit to Konstanz, located on Lake Constance (Bodensee). We'll stand on the spot where pre-Reformer Jan Hus was martyred and see the cathedral where some of his trials were held. Hus was the link between the Reformer in England, John Wycliffe, and Luther. Our journey continues across the southwestern corner of Germany to the French city of Strasbourg, which figured prominently in the Reformation. Calvin was exiled here from 1538 to 1541, during which time he was the pastor of a congregation of French refugees. In addition, Reformers Martin Bucer and Johannes Sturm lived and worked here. It has often been referred to as the "City of Hope" and the "Refuge of the Righteous" by Anabaptists. A walking tour will introduce us to Strasbourg's Cathedral Quarter, St. Thomas' Church, and the charming "La Petite France" quarter, the city's well-preserved historic core. Our day concludes with a boat ride on the canals and dinner. (B, D)

25, TUESDAY

Heidelberg, Schwetzingen

We'll again cross the French-German border today to reach Heidelberg, which has been the seat of Germany's most famous university since 1386. We'll tour Heidelberg Castle and enjoy a lovely view over the Old City and the Neckar River, and take a break for lunch. This afternoon we'll see the Church of the Holy Spirit and the Knight's House. The rest of the afternoon is at leisure, and those who wish will have an opportunity to take the Philosopher's Walk along the southern side of the Heiligenberg. It is said that university professors and philosophers used to walk here to draw inspiration. We'll end the day in Schwetzingen, where we'll check in at the hotel and have dinner. (B, D)

26, WEDNESDAY
*Worms, Mainz,
Eisenach*

Today we'll take an excursion to Worms to view the Reformation Monument and plaque where Luther appeared before the emperor in 1521, along with St. Peter's Church and the symbolic Luther Memorial near the town square. We'll then travel to Mainz to see the Gutenberg Memorial, dedicated to the German printing of the Bible. Our day concludes in Eisenach, known for its associations with Luther and Bach, where we'll check in at our hotel for a three-night stay and have dinner. (B, D)

27, THURSDAY
Eisenach

Our morning walking tour includes a visit to St. George's Church, where Bach was baptized and Luther preached in 1521, while banned from the Holy Roman Empire. We'll also visit the Luther House and have time for lunch, followed by a visit to the Bach House, where we'll find manuscripts, scores, and portraits recalling not only Johann Sebastian Bach, but also several other members of his family—all of them composers. Then the impressive Wartburg Castle awaits, perched on a rocky spur above town. It was here that Luther worked on his translation of the New Testament from Greek to the language of the common people. This evening, we plan to have a reception at the Bach House, followed by free time for an independent dinner. (B)

28, FRIDAY
Erfurt, Eisenach

An excursion to the delightful city of Erfurt awaits us today, known as the "Town of Flowers," where Luther was a university student. He obtained his degree in 1502 and a doctorate in the faculty of philosophy in 1515. We'll visit the Augustinian monastery where Luther lived and worked; the massive St. Mary's Cathedral where Luther was ordained as a priest; and the Krämerbrücke (Merchants' Bridge), a unique structure lined with quaint shops. Afterward, we'll have a chance to walk around the charming Old Town and do some shopping. Upon our return to Eisenach, the evening will be at leisure for an independent dinner. (B)

29, SATURDAY

Wittenberg

Today is devoted to Lutherstadt-Wittenberg, the “cradle” of the Reformation. Upon arrival, we’ll tour the Lutherhalle, formerly a monastery that was later Luther’s home. We’ll also visit the Cranach Hof; St. Mary’s City Church (Stadtkirche), where Luther preached; and the Castle Church (Schlosskirche). Tradition has it that he affixed his proposals for changes to certain practices of the Roman Catholic Church—later known as the 95 Theses—to the door of the Castle Church in 1517, which marked the beginning of the Protestant Reformation. This church contains the tombs of Luther and Philipp Melancthon, Luther’s friend and fellow Reformer. We’ll then have some free time to explore Wittenberg. Those who wish can attend an English-language worship service, held either at the Castle Church or the City Church, at 5:00 p.m. Tonight’s dinner will be at the hotel. (B, D)

30, SUNDAY

Berlin

This morning we’ll travel to Berlin, the once-divided city that is now Germany’s dynamic, cosmopolitan capital. During a panoramic tour, we’ll see such famous sites as the Brandenburg Gate, the Reichstag, Kaiser-Wilhelm Memorial Church, and remnants of the Berlin Wall. After time for lunch, we’ll visit the Dietrich Bonhoeffer House, a memorial to the life and work of the young German pastor who staunchly opposed the Nazi regime. The rest of the afternoon and evening are at leisure to explore Berlin on our own, shop, and have an independent dinner. (B)

01, MONDAY

Berlin, Amsterdam

After a leisurely morning, we’ll transfer to Berlin’s Tegel Airport to check in for the short flight to Amsterdam. Upon arrival, we’ll transfer to the city center with its picturesque canals lined with old buildings. We’ll see such sights as St. Nicholas Church, Begijnhof, and Dam Square with its Royal Palace, National Liberation Monument, and Nieuwe Kerk before checking in at the hotel. The evening is free for an independent dinner. (B)

02, TUESDAY

Amsterdam

Our day begins with a visit to the Anne Frank House, where we’ll learn more about the amazing and tragic life of a young Jewish girl who hid from the Nazis with her family. We’ll also visit the Rembrandt House Museum and take a relaxing canal boat cruise, followed by some free time. Enjoy a farewell dinner at a restaurant. (B, D)

03, WEDNESDAY

Return to the U.S.

The morning will be on our own to do as we please in Amsterdam, perhaps fitting in our last sightseeing and souvenir shopping, or getting some extra rest and packing our bags for the trip home. We’ll then transfer to Amsterdam’s Schiphol Airport to check in for the flight to Detroit. (B, D-in flight)

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The cost of your tour includes:

Air transportation from Detroit to Geneva, from Berlin to Amsterdam, and from Amsterdam back to Detroit with any regularly scheduled air carrier, based on a nonrefundable/nonchangeable fare, which requires a minimum of 10 passengers traveling round trip together. The identity of the carrier, which may include the carrier's code-share partner, will be assigned and disclosed in your final documents. Tickets are issued 45 days prior to departure. All current airlines taxes, security fees and fuel surcharges are included. Note that these items cannot be guaranteed until tickets are issued.

Secure flight information. The requirement to collect date of birth, gender, and full name are federally mandated by the Transportation Security Administration's (TSA) Secure Flight Program. While disclosure of this information is voluntary, if it is not provided, participants may be denied boarding. For TSA's policy and more information, visit <http://www.tsa.gov> and search on Secure Flight. Witte Travel & Tours (Witte) takes all reasonable steps to safeguard the privacy of all information collected from its clients.

Frequent flyer points are not guaranteed in connection with group airfares. Some airlines may limit group airfare credits to 25% to 50% of the frequent flyer points that apply to individuals while others do not offer any credits for group airfares.

Hazardous Materials. Federal law forbids the carriage of hazardous materials aboard aircraft in your luggage or on your person. A violation can result in five years' imprisonment and penalties of $250,000 or more (49 U.S.C. 5124). Hazardous materials include explosives, compressed gases, flammable liquids and solids, oxidizers, poisons, corrosives and radioactive materials. For more information, examples and special exceptions, visit: <http://www.tsa.gov/traveler-information/prohibited-items>.

Land transportation. A deluxe air-conditioned motorcoach is used for transfers, excursions, and travel between cities. Because motorcoach travel is restricted in many European cities, sightseeing is often done on foot. Sightseeing in Amsterdam will be done by foot or streetcar (tram).

Accommodations based on two persons sharing a room with private facilities. Most hotels we use range from moderate first-class to standard first-class. When hotels in these categories are not available, top-quality superior tourist-class properties are selected. The supplement for single accommodations is $780. If you register alone but want a roommate, we will do our best to assign one. If a single room must be assigned to any member of the group for any reason, even if it is at the last minute or while on tour, we will need to charge the single supplement. Changes in rooming arrangements requested by the participant 45 or fewer days prior to departure may result in additional charges.

Meals. Breakfast daily and dinners as indicated in the itinerary. Dinners do not include beverages.

A multi-lingual tour manager to accompany the group from arrival in Geneva until departure from Amsterdam. The tour manager may be assisted by local guides as needed.

Sightseeing and admission fees in accordance with the itinerary.

Tipping and taxes are included for all services, including the tip for the tour manager and motorcoach driver.

The tour cost does not include passports, airline luggage fees if charged, portage of luggage, optional travel protection plan including luggage and trip cancellation coverage, optional excursions, independent meals, and any other items not mentioned as included.

Luggage allowance. You may take one suitcase with a maximum size of 62 linear inches (height plus width plus depth) and weight of 50 lbs. You may also carry a purse, a camera and one piece of hand luggage with a maximum size of 45 linear inches and weight of 15 lbs. These size and weight restrictions conform to most airlines' requirements. Hand luggage does not fit in the overhead bins on the motorcoach. There may be room for it in the storage compartment under the coach or by an empty seat on board. If not, it will need to be placed on the floor in front of your feet. Portage of luggage is not provided. Participants will be responsible for carrying their own luggage throughout the tour. If you are physically unable to carry your luggage, ask your tour personnel to arrange for assistance.

Insecticide Disclosure. Some countries require that aircraft be treated with insecticides prior to flight or while occupied. For a list of the countries with insecticide requirements, go to <http://airconsumer.dot.gov/spray.htm>.

Optional travel protection. Witte recommends that you purchase a travel protection plan. For your convenience, Witte Travel offers a travel protection plan designed by Travelex Insurance Services. This travel protection can be purchased at any time prior to making the final payment for your tour. The pre-existing medical conditions exclusion will be waived if you purchase the protection plan within 15 days of the initial trip deposit, provided you are medically fit to travel at the time of purchase and full trip cost is insured. The plan cost for the travel protection plan that applies to your tour will be noted in your brochure and on the registration form. It may be necessary to increase the trip cost insured on the travel protection plan if you purchase additional services and/or upgrade any arrangements. This could increase the plan cost of the travel protection plan. The plan cost for this travel protection plan is non-refundable after a 15-day review period.

Documentation: U.S. citizens are required to have a valid passport. If you already have a passport, check its expiration date now since the countries visited on this tour require passports to be valid for at least six months beyond the traveler's intended return date. If your passport is due to expire earlier, you will need to obtain a new one. If you do not have a passport or need a new one, apply as soon as possible. If you plan to visit other countries on your own, contact Witte for any special requirements. All non-U.S. citizens should contact Witte for their special requirements. We will check the requirements for non-U.S. citizens at the time they register and again approximately 45 days prior to departure. Witte is not responsible for any changes in requirements for non-U.S. citizens that occur after our final check.

Minor children traveling internationally without both parents are encouraged to carry a notarized note signed by both parents stating that they have permission to travel without one or both of them. Although this is not a requirement, it will save time if questions arise while clearing customs.

Tour cost. The tour cost is based on a group of 30 passengers and current tariffs for air and land arrangements.

Please note that these travel arrangements are subject to possible price increases due to additional charges imposed by a supplier or government. You may be charged additional sums by Witte to offset increased fees, fuel surcharges, taxes, fluctuations in foreign exchange markets, and/or smaller group size. Before passing on an increase,

Witte will use its best efforts to minimize the amount. If it is necessary to increase the tour cost, participants will be advised at final billing and provided with a summary of the contributing factors. Your signature below indicates consent to any post-purchase price increases.

Reservations and payments. To make reservations on this tour, complete the Registration Form and return it as indicated. Reservations cannot be accepted over the telephone. Payments are due as follows:

Credit card payments. Visa, MasterCard, Discover or American Express credit cards are accepted for the deposit. The deposit charge is processed shortly after receipt of your registration form.

Note that payments made by check are refunded by check to the person or organization that made the payments, and payments charged to a credit card are credited back to the same credit card.

Membership. Witte reserves the right to accept or reject any person as a member of the tour and to expel from the tour any participant whose conduct or condition is incompatible with the interest of the group.

Land-only participants. If you wish to make your own flight arrangements, contact Witte for the land-only cost at least 90 days prior to departure. The flight from Berlin to Amsterdam is not included for land-only passengers and will need to be arranged separately. Participants who make their own flight arrangements are strongly encouraged to coordinate their flight schedules with the group’s flight schedule and to use the same airports. The group’s airport transfers on the arrival and return days will be timed to the group’s flight schedule. Land-only participants may need to arrange for their own airport transfers. Contact Witte for information and costs on options for private transfers. Witte cannot be responsible for any inconveniences to land-only participants resulting from changes in the group’s flight schedule. Tour participants with special needs are strongly encouraged to travel with someone who can assist them. Consult your physician if you have any concerns about your ability to participate.

As the tour operator, Witte Travel & Tours will be responsible for supplying the services and accommodations outlined in the brochure as constituting the tour, except to the extent that such services cannot be supplied, wholly or partially, owing to circumstances beyond its control.
